We say together...
Let us commit to seek a more peaceful world,
Where all are valued and none are excluded,
Where justice and mercy flow like rivers,
Where relationships are built on love and acceptance, not fear and intolerance,
And where we all recognize our part in bringing that peace. Amen

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I truly hope and pray that you had a wonderful Easter with all your family and friends. I pray that the joy of the risen Christ will remain within your hearts forever.

A special thank you to all who helped in anyway with our Holy Week liturgies. Thank you to Jack and Peggy Laciskey and their team for the wonderful floral display in St. Mary Church, Helene Shea and Mary Smith for the beautiful arrangements in the Chapel Of Saints and to Helvy and all at Holy Assumption for the beautiful array of flowers.

Please continue to keep the people of Sri Lanka, all those who lost loved ones, and all those injured by the terrible acts of Easter Sunday. May God give them the grace of healing and comfort.

~Fr Martin

† St. Vincent de Paul Society of Neighbors helping neighbors®

In today's Gospel, we hear the story of Thomas. Part of Thomas' problem was his seeking tangible proofs— seeing and touching—in order to believe. But how do we come to belief without seeing? Vincentians see the crucified everyday in the streets of large cities and in poor country villages. One of the great gifts of St. Vincent was the ability to recognize the crucified Christ in the face of the suffering and to mobilize the energies of others in their service. He was an extraordinary organizer. To aid the most abandoned of his time, Vincent gathered together rich and poor, women and men, clergy and lay. Today we continue Vincent's mission, all ministering as disciples of Jesus. Seeing these works is seeing Jesus. Seeing these works brings us to belief. More importantly, our doing what Jesus did, brings us to belief. Believing isn't seeing; it's doing the good works of Jesus.
