RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Prophet and His Native Place

“A prophet is not without honor except in his native place.”
It could be the slogan of high school reunions everywhere.

I speak from experience — I didn’t go to my high school reunion, but I do live in the same area in which I grew up. Ghosts from the past lurk in every grocery aisle and gas station. Former classmates fill my prescriptions at the pharmacy. I am always sure to see an old teacher or two at the Fourth of July parade.

If my teenage self knew that this was her future, she would be horrified. She wanted to grow up and move away, not because she didn’t like living in this town, but because she wanted to reinvent herself. And you can’t reinvent yourself in your native place. In your hometown, you’ll always be exactly what you are — no more, no less.

The same was true for Jesus, who was probably the only person actually worthy of admiration at his high school reunion. When he returned to his native place, he was what he had always been — God and man, Messiah, miracle-worker. This is not something he became, it was always within him.

But the people of Nazareth cannot accept it. Why?

Well, probably for the same reason that I wanted to reinvent myself when I was 16. We don’t often see anything worth venerating in the “right now” of our lives. We think happiness is a promotion or a pay bump away. We think we’ll finally be holy when we find the time to take that silent retreat. We think we will be beautiful when we lose ten pounds.

The Nazarenes lived with God right under their noses, and they didn’t realize it. So, when he came in all his greatness, the dissonance was too much to bear, and they rejected him. They didn’t want that God — the one they had dismissed or overlooked or ignored. They wanted a different one. A shinier one. One that didn’t look like the “right now” of their lives.

But that’s where God is, folks. He’s in the right now, and nowhere else. He’s waiting there for you, with all the happiness, holiness, and beauty your life needs.

Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” — Mark 6:4

Please welcome Fr. John Garrett, who will be assisting us on the weekends at both St. Mary Church in Bordentown as well as Holy Assumption in Roebling.

Welcome Fr. Garrett

Inspiration for the Week

When Jesus taught in the synagogue of his native place, he didn’t fit the image of the Messiah the people expected. They dismissed him. Let’s learn from their example and remember that God often comes to us in forms that are surprising — even challenging.

THE SICK who have been recommended to our prayers...

Nichole Lynn Cochran, Edward Gernhardt, Michael Nuzzi, John & Amy Oldham and Baby J.T. Oldham, Sr. Mary Craig, Robert Sobon, Kelly Sobon, Neil Jantos, John Oros, Genevieve Stanski, Sean Wenke, Louise, Ken Cunningham, Mark Gulbinsky, Florence & Joe Merz, Lawrence Welsh, Arlene Chaty, John TenBerge, and all the sick of the parish.

Please Pray for Our Deceased . . .

Volunteers are always needed!

God has a plan for you! Do not be afraid!

How many times have you considered volunteering as a religious education teacher, but something has held you back? By virtue of our baptism, we are called to share an echo the faith wall. This may be your path! We are recruiting to fill positions in our ministry. Training and mentoring are provided. We would love to have you join our ministry as we share the light of Christ to the children of our parish. We still need a Catechists for Tuesday 1st Grade. If we do not have a Catechist, we will not be able to hold that particular class session. Training is provided. If we have learned anything these past four years, it is that blessings come in all shapes and sizes, through thoughtful planning, and always with the guidance of the Holy Spirit. This program could not exist without our incredible volunteers!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AUGUST 5-9

VBS will run the week of August 5-9 from 9:00am-noon with the final show for families on Friday at 11:30am. Our walls are a welcoming space for all who enter. Invitation is open to anyone (parishioner or non-parishioner, family, friends, and neighbors). The week includes Sing & Play Blast Off, Imagination Station, songs, All-Star Games, Stellar Bible Adventures, Galactic Snacks, and Cosmic Closing! Registration forms are available in the Church or on the website. We will need both teen and adult volunteers; all adults will need to be fingerprinted and Virtus trained. Email mzola@mmotcp.org for more information.

THE EUCHARIST

- Ask your child to imagine being able to have Christmas any time they want, and that we get the most perfect gift every time. What would that gift be? Discuss.
- When we celebrate Christmas we are celebrating the gift of Jesus. When we celebrate the Eucharist, we are also celebrating the gift of Jesus. Isn't that wonderful!
- Discuss that the Eucharist is also called communion since it is a community that comes together to worship Jesus. Stress how important it is to receive the Eucharist as part of a community.
- Tell your child Jesus summed up everything when he gave us the Our Father. Our whole Church community has shared this prayer for centuries. Say the Our Father together.
