Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for July 2024
For The Pastoral Care of the Sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The focus of this week's gospel is on the healing of Jairus' daughter and the elderly woman that had suffered from hemorrhages for twelve years. We could look at this as Jesus' healing again, but this is more than your everyday healing. When Jesus performed physical healing, it wasn't for the purpose of healing a physical ailment, it was to show the love, power, and or the teaching of God. Girls and women, at the time of Jesus, weren't considered as important as boys and men. If healing was to happen, then the boys and men should be healed first.

For Jesus to heal Jairus' daughter he had to intentionally go out of his way, leave what he was doing and go to his home. While Jesus was on his way to Jairus' home, a woman suffering from hemorrhages, bleeding, approached Jesus to touch him in the belief that he could heal her. By her touching Jesus, and everyone else she touched just to get to Jesus, she made them unclean, leaving them now required to go and purify themselves before they could go home or worship God. Rather than Jesus chastising her for making him unclean, he compliments her on her faith and sends her away healed. While this was happening a messenger from Jairus' home comes and tells him the sad news that his daughter has died. By Jesus going to the home and the room of the dead girl, he was also making himself unclean and unable to perform his religious duties.

On the surface the point of this passage is the joy that the healing brings to the two individuals healed and to their families, but what is the point for us today, 2000 plus years later? Is it not that there is nothing that can keep us from the loving care of God, not even the diseases of this world or death itself? The greatest obstacle to us experiencing the love and care of God is ourselves. We convince ourselves of our own unworthiness or our undesirability or our sinfulness, God couldn't possibly love or care for me. Look at the love of Jairus for his daughter that motivated him to go to Jesus. Look at the woman who had suffered for years and not giving up hope or faith pushed her way to Jesus, not allowing tradition or social laws to prevent her from experiencing the healing love of Jesus. Friends, bring those you love to Jesus. Bring yourself to Jesus. Don't let traditions, social norms and laws be a barrier for you touching and experiencing the healing love of Jesus.

"If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." "Daughter, your faith has saved you.
Go in peace and be cured of your affliction."

Farewell to Fr Steve

Today at our 11:30 pm Mass we bid farewell to Fr. Steve as he turns a new page and begins a new chapter in his book of life. May God bless you Fr. Steve in the years ahead. I am hesitant to say retirement, as good men like you rarely retire but just change their approach in doing God's good work. You will be missed by all at Mary, Mother of the Church Parish. You have touched the lives of so many and have fed them with the words and bread of life. Please know you will always have a special place in our hearts and will be forever remembered in our prayers. May the love of God bless you always.

On behalf of myself, Fr. Anson, and all of the parish staff, we wish you a happy, healthy and safe 4th of July.

Fr. Martin

Inspiration for the Week

Talitha kum. Girl, arise! Jesus said this to the dead daughter of the synagogue official, and she obeyed.

Listen for his voice when you are weighed down,
burdened with doubt or misery,
for he says it to you, too. Arise!

Peter's Pence Collection
Be a sign of mercy.

Your Eminence/Excellency,

Since the time of the Apostles, Christians have supported the missionary and charitable work of the Church by contributing to collections taken up for that purpose. This tradition continues today in the Peter's Pence Collection, which dioceses around the world take up as a sign of unity with the successor of Peter to provide material support for the ongoing works of the Apostolic See.

On January 1, 2017, the Holy See's Dicastery for the Promotion of Integral Human Development began its mission of "attending to the inestimable goods of justice, peace, and the care of creation." Pope Francis instituted this new dicastery by merging the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, the Pontifical Council Cor Unum, the Pontifical Council for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerant People, and the Pastoral Council for Health Care Workers. In combining these ministries, this new dicastery can more effectively meet those it is called to serve.

Among those served have been thousands of migrants who fled Belarus in the summer of 2021 and became stranded in refugee reception centers along Lithuania's border with Belarus. An aid package that Pope Francis sent to Caritas Vilnius provided these migrants with medicines, food, and warm clothing, all of which helped alleviate the harsh conditions they faced during the winter cold. The pope provided this aid package through the new Dicastery for the Promotion of Integral Human Development, which operates with funds that the Holy See receives through the annual Peter's Pence Collection.

These valuable pastoral and administrative services are crucial to helping the Holy Father govern the Universal Church and promoting his efforts to bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to the world. Your (arch)diocesan support for the Peter's Pence Collection sustains these daily operations and the Holy Father's charitable works throughout the world in response to the needs of migrants, refugees, and victims of wars and natural disasters. For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: www.oholodisanti Pietro.va/en/cos-e-l-obolo.html (English) or www.oholodisanti Pietro.va/es/cos-e-l-obolo.html (español).

You can support this year's collection by encouraging your pastors to mention it at Mass and to use the parish appeal and bulletin announcements available at www.usccb.org/peters-pence/collection. If you have any questions, please contact Margaret Hren, assissant director for promotions, at 202-541-3365 or mhren@usccb.org. Thank you for your continued support.

This Ministry is vital to so many families. Your support is a blessing to ensure that no one in our community goes hungry

Thank you for your continued generosity!

In today's Gospel we see how in faith, Jairus asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering.

This week, please join with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in praying for the healing of all those who are ill and especially those who have no one to pray for them.

Volunteers are always needed!

God has a plan for you! Do not be afraid!

How many times have you considered volunteering as a religious education teacher, but something has held you back? By virtue of our baptism, we are called to share and echo our faith walk. This may be your path!

We are recruiting to fill positions in our ministry. Training and mentoring are provided. We would love to have you join our ministry as we share the light of Christ to the children of our parish. We are especially in need of Catechists for Monday Monthly 4th Grade and Tuesday 1st Grade. If we do not have a Catechist, we will not be able to hold that particular class session. Training is provided. If we have learned anything these past four years, it is that blessings come in all shapes and sizes, through thoughtful planning, and always with the guidance of the Holy Spirit. This program could not exist without our incredible volunteers!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AUGUST 5-9

VBS will run the week of August 5-9 from 9:00am-noon with the final show for families on Friday at 11:30am. Our walls are a welcoming space for all who enter. Invitation is open to anyone (parishioner or non-parishioner, family, friends, and neighbors). The week includes Sing & Play Blast Off, Imagination Station, songs, All-Star Games, Stellar Bible Adventures, Galactic Snacks, and Cosmic Closing! Registration forms are available in the Church or on the website. We will need both teen and adult volunteers; all adults will need to be fingerprinted and Virtus trained. Email mzola@mmtocp.org for more information.

THE EUCHARIST

Gather in a comfortable place.

Ask your child to think of their favorite family tradition.

How does that tradition make him/her feel?

Why is it so special to him/her? Discuss.

Tell him/her that Jesus loved traditions too, and one of his traditions was gathering friends for a meal. At the Last supper, He told them they will continue to share a meal, even when He was gone. Jesus' friends still celebrate this tradition. It's called Mass.
